Entry of our Lord into Jerusalem
Palm Sunday

Gospel
John 12:1-18

Troparion Tone 1

By raising Lazarus from the dead before Thy Passion,
Thou didst confirm the universal resurrection, O Christ God.
Like the children with the palms of victory, we cry out to Thee,
O Vanquisher of Death: “ Hosanna in the highest!// Blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord.”

Troparion (Feast)

Let the house of Israel say that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Troparion (Feast)

Let the house of Aaron say that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Troparion (Feast)

Let those who fear the Lord say that He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

Entrance Verse

Blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord. We bless you from the house of the Lord. God is the Lord and He has revealed Himself to us. (Ps. 117:25b-26)

For Health of:

Martin and Matechak Families by Matushka Gloria Martin

Let us say to Christ: "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel." Let us hold before him like palm branches those final words inscribed above the cross. Let us show him honor, not with olive branches but with the splendor of merciful deeds to one another. Let us spread the thoughts and desires of our hearts under his feet like garments, so that entering us with the whole of his being, he may draw the whole of our being into himself and place the whole of his in us. Let us say to Zion in the words of the prophet: "Have courage, daughter of Zion, do not be afraid. Behold, your king comes to you, humble and mounted on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden."
